13 DAY KENYA ROYAL SAFARI

Kenya's boundless wilderness and big game has long attracted adventure seekers from all over the world. Hollywood has also had a long standing affair with Kenya since the 1930's. Many classic adventure movies were shot on location in Kenya, including "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" starring Gregory Peck, "King Solomon's Mines" with Stewart Granger and Mogambo featuring Clark Gable and Ava Gardner. Joy Adamson's book "Born Free" was made into a hit movie filmed entirely on location in Kenya. The film's stars Virginia McKenna and Bill Travers went on to form a charity The Born Free Foundation which continues to support conservation work in Kenya. Hollywood's greatest tribute to Kenya came with 1985's "Out of Africa". Adapted from Karen Blixen's classic book, the film told the story of her life in colonial Kenya, with Meryl Streep in the lead role and Robert Redford playing her lover, Denys Finch Hatton. With stunning cinematography and a rich music score by John Barry, the film brought Kenya to audiences all over the world. A major box office hit, Out of Africa went on to win the Academy Award for Best Picture.

Kenya is a great destination for television wildlife productions. Many award winning wildlife series have been shot on location in Kenya by BBC Natural History, Discovery, Survival and other production houses. The Maasai Mara continues to be the backdrop for BBC's popular Big Cat Diary, following the lives of the reserves predators. Also the 2005 box-office hit "The Constant Gardener" was also filmed on location in Loiyangalani, a small town located on the south-eastern coast of Lake Turkana.

This 13-day Kenya Royal Safari offers the opportunity to explore a few of Kenya's remarkable wildlife sanctuaries and ample time to immersion into the unique geographical features and meet the locals. magnificent views of Mount Kenya, the club offers a unique blend of comfort, relaxation and adventure.

A safari into the wilds of Kenya is a journey truly amazing!

Your Tour Leader on this unforgettable Kenya Adventure Safari is Zighe Mwachofi of To Africa Tours & Safaris. Born and grew up in Kenya, she has over 20 years experience as Africa Safari Planner to Eastern and Southern Africa. (NOTE: Should the number fall below 18 passengers, the trip will be locally hosted by To Africa Tours and Safaris in country representative.)

Day 5: Fairmont Mount Kenya Safari Club

After breakfast drive to Fairmont Mount Kenya Safari Club. Rest of the day at your leisure to enjoy the clubs various facilities. There are many recreational activities available: horseback riding, golf, croquet, a putting green, a bowling green, table tennis, swimming, a beauty salon, an animal orphanage. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Mount Kenya Safari Club Fairmont Hotel ...Built in 1959 as the private retreat of movie star

William Holden, the Safari Club has near-legendary status and is now in the hands of the Fairmont hotel group. The sprawling, resort like hotel is right on Mount Kenya's doorstep, with majestic views of its peaks. Upon arrival, you walk along the equator right on your way to the check-in desk. There are 100 acres of immaculately tended gardens spread on either side of the equator.

Day 6: Samburu Game Reserve ...

After breakfast drive further north to the semi-arid and rugged landscape of Samburu National Reserve Samburu takes its name from the nomadic tribe who live throughout this area. Safari through Samburu, Buffalo Springs and Shaba is a rich and rewarding experience. Travelling along the banks of the Ewaso N'giro provides a fascinating procession of varied species. Elephant come to the river to drink, and in the dry season, use their tusks to dig deep wells in the dry river beds. There are plenty of crocodiles here, and large specimens can be seen sunning themselves on sandbanks. The heavy traffic of game around the riverbanks means that Lions are commonly seen hunting here. The plains and surrounding hills are the best place to find gerenuk, Grevy's Zebra and cheetah. The rocky slopes of the Kopjes and hills are good country for Kudu and are home to several prides of lion. Meals: breakfast,

lunch, dinner

Accommodation: Ashnil Samburu Camp ...Ashnil Samburu Camp sits in Buffalo Springs Game Reserve which takes its name from an oasis of crystal clear water at the western end of the reserve.

Each of the 24 deluxe en-suite tents have a view of the Ewaso Nyiro River. Every spacious tent consists of a dressing area, sitting area, luggage rack and en-suite facilities to provide a memorable stay close to nature. The open sitting restaurant located in the main building, overlooks the Ewaso Nyiro River. There is a variety of menus to choose from but mainly oriental, international cuisine and a taste of African traditional dishes.

Day 7: Samburu Game Reserve .....Early morning and late afternoon game-drives enable you to see wildlife unique to this arid yet beautiful part of Kenya. Optional activities include: guided nature walks and visit to Samburu villages.

Meal: breakfast, Lunch, dinner

Accommodation: Ashnil Samburu Camp

Day 8: Maasai Mara Game Reserve ..... After an early morning game drive and breakfast you will say “kwaheri” (goodbye) to your driver/guide and board a light aircraft for your flight to Maasai Mara National Reserve (there is luggage restriction on this flight – 33 pounds. You will leave your extra luggage with your driver/guide to take it back to Nairobi and you will retrieve it when you return to Nairobi from Maasai Mara). On arrival at the airstrip you will be met by the driver/guide from the Fairmont Mara Safari Club. You will arrive in time for lunch. In the late afternoon proceed on a game-drive. The Mara is an awesome natural wonder, a place where Maasai warriors share the plains with hunting lions. It is the land of “Big-Six” (lions, hippo, rhino, elephants and buffalo and cheetah). Wildlife moves freely in and out of the reserve, and through neighboring Maasai lands. This unique co-existence of man and wildlife makes this Maasai land one of the world’s most unique wilderness regions. The Maasai regard themselves not just as residents of this area but that they are as much a part of the life of the land as the land is part of their lives. Meals: breakfast, lunch, dinner.

Accommodation: Mara Safari Club ....Surrounded on three sides by the Mara River, Fairmont Mara Safari Club is the epitome of tented luxury. The main lodge at the center of camp hosts an indoor restaurant, bar and library with Internet access to keep the relatives up to date with safari adventures. A spacious outside deck overhangs the river and leads to a heated pool, complete with bar and private massage tents. Each tent consists of heavy canvas sides and roof mounted to a concrete foundation. Like most tents, you enter and exit through a zippered slit on the front of the tent. Each tent also has a large front porch with a view of the Mara River where hippos and crocs tend to hang out and wallow in the muddy waters. While the tents look pretty plain from the outside, once inside they reveal all the comforts of a 5-star hotel including a roomy walk-in shower, separate toilet room, vanity and plush towels.

Day 9/10: Maasai Game Reserve

Spend 2 full days in Mara, awoken to the sounds of birds in these endless rolling plains dotted with acacia trees. The scheduled morning and afternoon game drives provide you with an excellent opportunity to photograph the abundant wildlife in this seemingly limitless game reserve. On one of the morning you may opt to go on the scheduled game drive or for optional an early morning hot air balloon safari (extra cost -$470.00 per person). The balloon ride gives you a bird's eye view of the Mara plains before landing for a champagne breakfast in the bush. Meals: breakfast, lunch, dinner: Accommodation: Mara Safari Luxury Tented Camp

Day 11: Nairobi ..... After breakfast and check out, transfer to the airstrip for your scheduled light aircraft flight to Nairobi Wilson Airport. Met on arrival and transferred to the Tamambo Karen Blixen Coffee Gardens for Lunch. After lunch, proceed on a visit to the Kazuri Bead Factory. The mission of Kazuri is to provide and sustain employment opportunities for disadvantaged women. The Factory employs over 370 women, mostly single mother. It is equipped with a Clinic, providing free medical care for the employees and their immediate family. Kazuri also absorbs 80% of the medical bills outside the Factory Clinic. Afternoon transfer to the Norfolk Hotel where you are booked for the night on bed and breakfast. Tonight dinner will be at the world famous Carnivore restaurant. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner. Accommodation: Fairmont Norfolk Hotel.

Day 12: Depart Nairobi.... After breakfast proceed on a visit to the Daphne Sheldrick Orphanage which is strictly opened between 1100hrs to 1200hrs. followed by a visit to the Giraffe Center where you will have the opportunity to hand feed giraffes up close and person on a raised platform. Lunch will be at a local Nairobi restaurant followed by final transfer to the airport for your outbound international flight. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 13 : London/USA ... Arrive London in the morning and connect your Virgin Atlantic Airways flight to USA, taking all the memories of Kenya to share with friends and family.

HEALTH RECOMMENDATION: The following vaccinations are recommended: Tetanus, typhoid, polio, Hepatitis A&B. Consult your doctor or local health department, travel clinic or immunizations center. Also recommended is anti-Malaria medication. For more information on health in Kenya please visit CDC website

MONEY MATTERS: The official Kenya currency is Kenya Shilling. The written abbreviation is either KSh or using /= after the amount (500/=). Available in notes re 50, 100, 200, 500, 1000 shillings. Available coins are 1, 5, 10, 20, 50. Foreign currencies such as the USD, Euros and Sterling pound are widely accepted. However, please note that dollar bills printed before 2003 are not accepted in Kenya, as there was a large amount of illegal processing of dollar bills in the country during that time. High denomination notes may also not be accepted, so make sure that your money in small bills ($1s, $5s $10s, and $20s) and make sure they notes are new bills. The bill s should not be worn out or torn.

Foreign exchange and ATMs are found throughout Kenya's major city centers and shopping complexes. It is advised that you bring enough money to last you the duration of your trip. Although the dollar is accepted widely, large cities and lodges/camps, you can exchange some of your money into local currency at the bank at the airport on arrival or bureau de change. Some hotels/lodges/camp, will exchange the money, however you will not get a good rate.

Visa, MasterCard, Diners Club and American Express are accepted by most restaurants, shops and hotels. Proof of identity may be requested, so be sure to carry a passport or some form of photo identification at all times. It is difficult to pay by credit card outside Nairobi.

The recommended amount of money to bring in cash is between $500—$800.00 minimum in U.S dollars. This money should include your tips and gratuities. In hotels/Lodges/Camps you can leave U.S. dollars or Kenya Shilling.

ELECTRICITY :The electricity supply in Kenya is 220/240 v 50hz. Plugs are 3 point square. You will need to bring your own converter and adapter (universal adapter with square three prongs) for recharging camera batteries, hairdryers, and electric shavers. Or instead you can bring devices that use batteries to operate and a supply of batteries.

WHAT TO PACK FOR THIS TRIP: When packing keep in mind on international flights you are allowed one check-in luggage weighing 50 pounds. Your carry-on luggage only maximum of 13 pounds. ( Please verify with individual airline for luggage requirements) On inter-park flights on safari you are allowed 33 pounds. Also while on safari the space in the vehicles is limited. It is recommended you use soft sided luggage /duffel bag with wheels which is easier to transport in safari vehicles and on inter-park flights. It is also advisable, in addition to your check-in luggage to bring a small carry-on bag with everything that is essential and valuable, such as camera equipment, you medications, important travel documents, passports, money etc. for more information and regulations regarding contents of carry-on luggage please visit this website <http://www.tsa.gov/travelers>.

Safaris are extremely informal vacations, so pack lightly. All the lodges allow casual clothing and traditional safari wear while dining. It is recommended you bring light weight comfortable washable clothes. Most lodges and camps will launder your clothes for free or a small fee ($2 - $3 per item) within 24-hours. Loose fitting, casual and comfortable clothing is recommended. Bright colors are not suitable for game viewing, and game drives are conducted in the early morning and late afternoon, which can be cold, especially in winter.
